Monday, Dec. 19 | 4:30 - 5:30pm
Hennage Auditorium | $10 per person

John Turner and David Gardner perform traditional and seasonal tunes on a variety of instruments made specifically for travel in the 17th, 18th, and 19th centuries. Also called “dancing master’s kits,” these instruments were used by Niel and Nathaniel Gow, famous Scottish fiddlers, and Thomas Jefferson.

Profound Joy

Saturday, Dec. 24 | 4:30 - 5:30pm
Hennage Auditorium | $10 per person

Timothy Seaman celebrates the wonder of the holiday season with early American and world-wide melodies along with new compositions from his recordings “Profound Joy”, “Hope from on High”, and “Incarnation.” Winter, Christmas, and Hanukkah themes are heard in the glowing drama of the extended-range hammered dulcimer during this special hour. Reflect on the meaning of the season, rekindling memories of holidays past and continuing longstanding traditions into the future. This popular yearly Christmas Eve concert — always freshly arranged and full of joy, hope, and peace — has become a much-anticipated tradition for many.

Wassails to Hoedowns | Holiday Music in Virginia

Sunday, Dec. 4 Sunday, Dec. 18
Sunday, Dec. 11
3 - 4pm | Hennage Auditorium | $15 per person, $10 per child (5 and under)

Since 1607, Virginia celebrated Christmas holidays with music and dance. Songs and customs brought over in colonial times evolved in the hills and hollows of Appalachia, where the music of the British Isles blended with African rhythms and instruments, leading to country music. And carols and tunes from other parts of Europe joined the chorus. Join Henley Fork—featuring Doug Austin, Brian Forsman, Lynn and Barry Trott, and special guest Lee Welch—for a musical journey across four centuries of Virginia holiday music and traditions.

President George Washington's Thanksgiving Proclamation

Thursday, Nov. 24 | 11 - 11:45am
Hennage Auditorium | $5 per person

Following a resolution of Congress on October 3, 1789, President George Washington proclaimed Thursday, November 26, 1789, a day of “public thanksgiving and prayer” devoted to “the service of that great and glorious Being who is the beneficent Author of all the good that was, that is, or that will be.” In setting aside a day for Thanksgiving, Washington established a non-sectarian tone for these devotions. It stressed political, moral, and intellectual blessings that make self-government possible, and personal and national repentance. Hear from President Washington on the 233rd anniversary of this day of Thanksgiving.

7:30 - 8:30pm | 9 - 10pm | Capitol General Court | $19 per person

In late 1718, a Royal Navy expedition, dispatched from Virginia, killed Blackbeard the pirate off the coast of North Carolina. Also at that same time, 15 members of his crew were captured and brought to the Public Gaol in Williamsburg. They were tried for piracy at the Capitol by Virginia Governor Alexander Spotswood in early 1719. Join in this recreation of the actual trial of Israel Hands, a member of Blackbeard's crew. Hear the evidence and make a judgment! How would you sentence a pirate? Due to the subject matter, this program is not recommended for young children.
