Celebrate Constitution Day with Colonial Williamsburg

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (Sept. 14, 2021) – Colonial Williamsburg invites the community to celebrate the 234th anniversary of the signing of the U.S. Constitution with a free event on Friday, Sept. 17, on the lawn in front of the Art Museums from 6-7:30 p.m. "To Support and Defend," will bring America’s governing document to life through music and the spoken word.

The program features a combined ensemble of members of the USAF Heritage of America Band, the USA Training and Doctrine Command (TRADOC) Band, the USN Fleet Forces Band, and Marine Corps musicians from The Navy School of Music playing works by eminent American composers. In addition, the Colonial Williamsburg Fifes and Drums will perform. The program also features host Raymond Jones of WHRO and Colonial Williamsburg interpreters Ron Carnegie as George Washington and Bryan Austin as James Madison.

Guests interested in extending their Constitution Day celebration can attend a ticketed audience with James Madison at 3:30 p.m. at the Hennage Auditorium located inside the Art Museums. Join Madison as he reflects on compromises, victories, and sacrifices that make our 234-year-old Constitution a political miracle.
