Virginia Residents Receive Admission for the Rest of the Year for the Price of One Multi-Day Ticket

Special hotel rates also available for Virginia residents at Colonial Williamsburg Resorts

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (March 1, 2022) – Starting March 1 and lasting through April 29, Colonial Williamsburg is offering all Virginia residents—including all active-duty military and dependents currently stationed in Virginia—the opportunity to pay the price of a multi-day ticket to receive free admission for the rest of 2022.

The Virginia Resident Pass provides unlimited admission to the world's largest living history museum. Residents can take advantage of unbounded access to the Historic Areas sites, including Historic trade shops and gardens, regular programs, the world-class Art Museums of Colonial Williamsburg and more.

Virginia Residents can also take advantage of exclusive staycation offers, including 10% off the best available room rate at all Colonial Williamsburg Resorts properties. When the Virginia Resident Rate is booked direct, residents will also receive two complimentary tickets and up to $350 in savings in resort outlets coupons.

Visit this spring and see the streets of our city come to life. Experience our new Intersections program and witness the daily lives of ordinary people during extraordinary times. Learn about the important and sometimes unexpected roles of women in 18th-century Williamsburg during Women’s History Month. Join our expert archaeologists for an up-close look at some of our current excavations.

The offer is based on the full price of a multi-day ticket price which retails at $56.00 per adult and $30.99 for children ages 6-12. This offer cannot be combined with other Colonial Williamsburg discounts. Unlimited admission is valid through Dec. 31, 2022.

The Virginia Resident Pass can be purchased online at colonialwilliamsburg.org/vares or onsite at any Colonial Williamsburg ticket location. All members of the party must be present to receive the promotion, while guests who purchase online must present their valid state-issued ID at a ticketing location to validate their residency and receive their pass.
Protecting the health and safety of guests, employees and the local community has been one of Colonial Williamsburg’s highest priorities through the COVID-19 pandemic. Following the guidance of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) issued Feb. 25, Colonial Williamsburg no longer requires guests to wear masks during their visit. Please note that the Federal Transportation Security Administration still requires masks for passengers on all buses including Colonial Williamsburg shuttle buses. The foundation’s latest COVID-19 health and safety policies are available at colonialwilliamsburg.org. For more information call 855-296-6627 toll-free or follow Colonial Williamsburg on Facebook and @colonialwmsburg on Twitter and Instagram.

Media contact:  Ellen Morgan Peltz
757-220-7287
epeltz@cwf.org

The Colonial Williamsburg Foundation preserves, restores and operates Virginia’s 18th-century capital of Williamsburg. Innovative and interactive experiences highlight the relevance of the American Revolution to contemporary life and the importance of an informed, active citizenry. The Colonial Williamsburg experience includes more than 600 restored or reconstructed original buildings, renowned museums of decorative arts and folk art, extensive educational outreach programs for students and teachers, lodging, culinary options from historic taverns to casual or elegant dining, the Golden Horseshoe Golf Club featuring 45 holes designed by Robert Trent Jones and his son Rees Jones, a full-service spa and fitness center, pools, retail stores and gardens. Philanthropic support and revenue from admissions, products and hospitality operations sustain Colonial Williamsburg’s educational programs and preservation initiatives.

– CWF –